ADB EXTENDS TERMS OF PRIVATE PLACEMENT WARRANTS

Toronto, ON – June 13, 2005 – ADB Systems International (TSX: ADY; OTCBB: ADBYF), a global provider of asset lifecycle management solutions, announced today that it has received conditional approval from the Toronto Stock Exchange to extend the terms of all 2,732,674 warrants issued in connection with a private placement completed on June 26, 2003 for a period of approximately ninety days beyond the original expiration date.

Investors in the private placement will now have until September 26, 2005 to exercise any unconverted warrant into one common share priced at $0.40.

No other terms of the private placement were affected.

Under the original terms of the June 26, 2003 private placement, ADB issued to private investors units priced at $0.24 (CDN) each. Each unit consisted of one common share and one two-year warrant to purchase one common share at $0.40. The transaction resulted in the issuance of 4,878,507 common shares and 2,732,674 common share-purchase warrants exercisable into one common share with an original expiration date of June 26, 2005. The warrant holders are comprised of arm's length investors and non-management employees of ADB Systems.
